

GEORGIA AVRAAM

Mrs. Avraam has been a dedicated educator of the Greek language since 2006. Born and raised in Athens, Greece, she earned her degree in Greek Language and Linguistics from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens.

While living in Greece, Mrs. Avraam taught high school students Ancient Greek, Modern Greek, and Latin, preparing them for the Panhellenic examinations for university admission. In 2017, she relocated to the United States with her family, where she began teaching Greek as a second and heritage language. She is a certified instructor in Teaching Greek as a Foreign Language and actively pursues professional development through seminars and educational programs both in Greece and the United States.

Mrs. Avraam joined our school in 2023. In 2024, she was appointed Greek Program Coordinator and currently serves as Assistant Principal. Additionally, she holds the position of Principal at the Greek Afternoon School of Saint Markella in Wantagh. She also serves as an examiner for both the Greek Regents and Ellinomatheia examinations, playing a vital role in promoting and assessing Greek language education throughout the diaspora.

Outside of her professional commitments, Mrs. Avraam is a devoted mother to two sons, Konstantinos and Orfeas. She enjoys spending quality time with her family, traveling across the United States and Europe, and sharing her passion for Greek culture through cooking and baking traditional Greek cuisine.
