

ELINA PAPADOPOULOU

Ms. Elina Papadopoulou is a passionate preschool teacher with more than three years of experience working with young children and supporting their growth and learning.

She holds a Bachelor's degree in Early Childhood Education from the University of Western Macedonia in Florina, Greece, and a Master's degree in Early Childhood Education from CUNY Queens College.

Elina is committed to creating a warm and caring classroom where children feel safe, heard, and valued. She believes that every child is unique and works to support their social, emotional, and academic growth. She encourages children to build confidence, become more independent, and develop a love of learning.

As a mother of two young children, Elina understands the importance of creating a caring and supportive environment where children feel safe, comfortable, and encouraged to grow.

Fluent in Greek, Elina enjoys sharing the Greek language, traditions, and culture. Outside of the classroom, she loves spending time with her family and friends, cooking and baking for them, and expressing her creativity through crafts and DIY projects.
