

CATHY BASILE

Cathy Basile is a dedicated and passionate preschool teacher's assistant with 4 years of experience at GAI in nurturing young minds, fostering creativity, and providing a strong foundation for lifelong learning. Cathy holds a Bachelor's degree from Lehman College.

With a commitment to creating a warm and engaging learning environment, she is a true champion for early childhood education. In addition, and probably most importantly, she can make almost anything out of a cardboard box.

Outside of school she enjoys reading books, gardening, making jewelry, watching documentaries, drinking tea and relaxing with her family.
