

PANAGIOTIS PAPASTEFANOU

Panagiotis C. Papastefanou is the instructor of traditional Greek dances at the Greek American Institute. He grew up dancing and performing traditional dances from all over Greece. He began in the Greek American Folklore Society from the early age of 6.

He is currently a senior in the Thomas J. Cox Honours Program at the Peter J. Tobin College of Business at St. John's University studying Business, Law, and Philosophy on a near-full academic scholarship, aspiring to be an attorney and entrepreneur. He is President of the Entrepreneurship Alliance, a student-run organization of 200 members at St. John's University, whose purpose is to help students start or grow their businesses. Panagiotis also has his own tutoring business, Renaissance Tutoring, where he tutors students K-8 in all subjects. He is also an active member of the Kalymnian Society Dance Group, a chanter at Holy Protection of the Mother of +God+ Greek Orthodox Cathedral in Astoria, and a solo vocalist in the Voices of Victory Gospel Choir at St. John's University.

In addition to that, he is a legal intern at Pardalis and Nohavicka Lawyers LLP and will be attending Law School in the fall of 2026.
